

When was the last time you visited WWW.NCOAUSA.ORG? If it has been a while you might need to stop by.

When you first stop by you will see what's happening and what has happened. Take special note of when this year's conference is scheduled. If you slide your cursor around you will see a little hand pop up, use it to click on what interests you and read the articles or listen to our President's YouTube messages.

If you look across the top in maroon you will see links you can go to. By hovering over some of them you can see other links (some of the links have links) that may interest you. Just hover with your cursor and click.

You might want to read the LEADERSHIP MESSAGES. Our four top leaders each have their own message area. Under each one's picture there is a Click here. You can listen or read what they have to say. There is insightful and informative information provided.

If you click on RESOURCES you could find organizations that may be able to help you or someone you know. By going to these sites thru the Non Commissioned Officers Association (NCOA) site they will continue to assist and support us. Do you need help in getting a job? Counseling? Locating someone you served with? The number for Veterans in Crisis? Or maybe some promotional items. And don't skip the Click here at the bottom to go into additional resources available listed by resource. These organizations are here to assist you in whatever you are going thru or need.

Another interesting area is LEGISLATION. This is the way we are the "The Voice of Today's Enlisted". If you want to know what we are watching on Capitol Hill, it is listed here. Also, you can read the NCOA Resolutions package for 2019-2020. Any member can submit a resolution, you just need to use the proper format and get it to HQ at least four months before the conference for consideration in the next year's resolution package.

All of the areas on the website are accessible to anyone using visiting WWW.NCOAUSA.ORG. If you want to go take advantage of the various member benefits, you must be a PREMIUM member. NCOA is proud of the variety and quality of benefits available to our members and we are constantly negotiating to bring on new and exciting benefits and services for our members. When you join NCOA you will receive our weekly newsletter and legislative updates, are eligible for membership discounts, scholarships, college tuition discounts, and much more. By joining NCOA it will also help support our voice on Capitol Hill. Join us and make NCOA GREAT AGAIN!

This is just a sample of what you can do with this site. By the way, if you have a question or comment about this site there is a Point of Contact you can easily email. I suggest you visit this site frequently and use it often.
